

Northern Virginia Recruiting Resources For Dulles Regional Chamber of Commerce Members

Within Northern Virginia, there are a number of free or modest-cost recruiting resources that Dulles Regional Chamber of Commerce members can leverage to help them attract candidates for jobs in their organizations. This list provides web-based resources and personal contacts of individuals that can help Dulles Regional Chamber of Commerce members achieve their staff recruiting goals.

SkillSource: The Northern Virginia Workforce Investment Board oversees a network of one-stop job centers in Fairfax, Prince William and Loudoun counties, where employers can access a variety of free recruiting assistance services.

Website: http://www.myskillsource.org/home/business_services/index.asp

Contact: James Do, Business Services Manager
(703) 533-5471, and James.Do@fairfaxcounty.gov

Virginia Employment Center (VEC): The Virginia Employment Center offers a variety of free recruiting assistance services for employers at its Fairfax office and through its website.

Website: http://www.vec.virginia.gov/vecportal/employer/employer_services.cfm

Contact: VEC's Fairfax/Chantilly office
(703) 803-0000

Commonwealth Workforce Network: Monthly meetings of workforce development professionals throughout the Northern VA region. Employers are invited to present information about their company to include employment opportunities. This is a great opportunity for companies to connect with organizations who can refer qualified candidates. Businesses can also have their job announcements distributed to workforce development professionals.

Contact: Evelyn Kaiser, Business Development Manager
(703) 277-3511, and Evelyn.Kaiser@drs.virginia.gov

NOVATRAK: Northern Virginia Community College offers online services for a modest fee through which employers can post openings to recruit NOVA students and graduates for permanent, part-time, and internship opportunities.

Website: <http://www.nvcc.edu/depts/novatrak/jobemployer.htm>

Contacts: See NOVATRAK website for contact information at each campus.

George Mason University: GMU's Career Services group offers multiple services for employers to recruit GMU students and graduates.

Website: <http://careers.gmu.edu/employers/index.cfm>

NVFS Training Futures Program: Northern Virginia Family Services' nonprofit Training Futures program offers trained office administrative interns for two-week, unpaid internship assignments and on-site job fairs at its Tysons Corner location.

Website: <http://www.nvfs.org/trainingfutures.htm>

Contact: Marla Burton, Site Coordinator
(703) 448-1630, and mburton@nvfs.org

VA Department of Rehabilitative Services: Today, more and more businesses are realizing that people with disabilities make valuable employees. At no cost businesses can benefit from the following DRS services: recruitment resource, job retention assistance, disability education training and disability resources:

Contact: Evelyn Kaiser Business Development Manager
703-277-3511 and evelyn.kaiser@drs.virginia.gov

Website: www.vdrs.org Business
www.vadrs.org Consumer